

Contents

Features

18 EXCLUSIVE UPDATE WITH PETER JACKSON

The director recounts Oscar day, explains his intrigue with the notion of beacons, and reveals what The Lord of the Rings fans can expect in the future.

24 FRIEND TO THE END

Sean Astin does it all—actor, director, philanthropist, friend, and family man. Discover just how he balances his schedule and how playing “Sam” has inspired him to reach new levels.

34 KEEPING THE DRIVE ALIVE

With an open ear, a smile, and a whole lot of motivation, art department manager Chris Hennah kept the set running like clockwork.

42 ARTIFACTS—AGED TO PERFECTION

Leather is one artifact the trilogy couldn't do without, as we learn from senior leather master Mike Grealish, who reveals a few tricks used in producing a look that is old before its time.

50 FINDING TOM BOMBADIL

Exclusive “book” cards—including popular characters such as Tom Bombadil, Goldberry, Radagast, and Glorfindel—have recently been released as part of The Lord of the Rings Trading Card Game. Learn about Weta Workshop and Decipher's joint efforts in creating these high-quality cards.

56 UNSUNG HEROES

Whether filming aerial shots or flying the cast and crew to remote locations in New Zealand, helicopter pilot Alfie Speight has been one of the production's most vital assets.

Departments

8 MAILBAGGINS

10 NEWS FROM MIDDLE-EARTH

Oscar party coverage... The latest on The Hobbit... Celebrity Tracks...and more!

64 DOWN THE ADVENTURE PATH

German entrepreneur Oliver Nöll's The Lord of the Rings product line has brought him and his company such unusually quick success that his story reads like it is straight out of a fairy tale.

68 FAN FOCUS

The “Into the West” Oscar party results in a night fans will always remember; the Hawaii Tolkien Society is this issue's “Fellowship Spotlight.”

70 CATALOG

82 QUOTEWORTHY